

How to Make a Call Using Video Relay

Name: _____

What is a Video Relay System (VRS)? _____

A Video Relay System is available _____ hours a day, _____ days a week.

All video relay calls from in the United States to other locations within the United States are _____.

How to make a call:

1. Set up the video relay equipment.
2. Connect to the video relay service according to the instructions for your equipment.
3. When connected, type in the 10-digit access number and click the call button.

Features:

- _____: This will allow you to see the caller, but the caller will not see you. The caller will see a Video Privacy Enabled screen until you turn it off. The audio stream remains enabled when this feature is on.
- _____-Way Calling: This allows you to view a call with two other people at the same time.
- Presentation Feature: This allows you to share _____ during a call.