

QUIZ - What Can YOU Do to Help Yourself Self-Advocacy Strategies

Circle if the problem listening/understanding is due to the Listener, Place or Talker (L P T).
Provide one or more strategies for each of the situations listed below (can role-play responses).

What can YOU do?

☐ If you aren't clear about homework or test instructions:	L P T
☐ If it is too noisy for you to hear your teacher clearly:	L P T
☐ One particular person in your class is making noise:	L P T
☐ If it is noisy in the hallway:	L P T
☐ When you miss information as your class changes activities:	L P T
☐ When the FM microphone is not being used (teacher or students answering):	L P T
☐ When your class is working in a small groups and it is hard to hear your group members:	L P T
☐ When it is noisy and your are at an assembly or other school situations:	L P T

What can you AND your teacher working together do?

☐ How can you let your teacher know when you don't understand?	L P T
☐ How can you let your teacher know you need information to be repeated or summarized after a student talks:	L P T
☐ When your teacher speaks with his/her back to you or while roaming about the classroom:	L P T
☐ When you cannot easily hear TV, video streaming or computer information used in class:	L P T
☐ When you are missing important information like homework, test instructions, or announcements:	L P T
☐ When you are working in a small group:	L P T
☐ When it is difficult to take notes and listen at the same time:	L P T

What can you AND your friends working together do?

☐ When you don't understand or miss part of a direction:	L P T
☐ If you miss information from student answers during a discussion:	L P T
☐ When it is noisy and your friends start talking and you miss what they say:	L P T
☐ When you are talking with friends and miss something:	L P T

