

LISTENING IN THE CLASSROOM

PRE-TEST

POST-EST

True	False	People with normal hearing can hear just as well if someone is talking from far away or close by.
True	False	When there are many people talking at the same time, it is hard to understand.
True	False	There is such a thing as 20/20 (perfect) hearing to describe people who can hear sounds at a distance well.
True	False	Noise can come into a classroom from outside the walls, door or windows.
True	False	When the teacher moves around the classroom, I can always hear everything she says.
True	False	Sound bounces off walls, ceilings and floors.
True	False	Noise can be heard inside a classroom when students move around.
True	False	It is harder to hear someone outside because there is no reverberation.
When someone is saying words from 3 feet away, I can understand _____ % of the words.
When I hear words from 3 feet away and I can see someone's face, I can understand ____%.
When someone is saying words from 12 feet away, I can understand _____ % of the words.
When I hear words from 12 feet away and I can see someone's face, I can understand ____%
When I hear words through an FM system, I can understand ____% of the words.
When I hear words through an FM and I can see someone's face, I can understand ____%.

Age Range: Late Primary/Secondary