

Table of Contents

Straight from the Zebra's Mouth

Unique Aspects of Students with Hearing Loss

Understanding Group Discussions and Participating in Small Group Work

Tech Talk

Technology Considerations to Improve Access, Involvement, Outcomes

Hearing Aid and FM Monitoring Basics – Daily Ling Check and HA Monitoring Instructions

Language Instruction Strategies

Materials to use for Preschool, Elementary, and Secondary Students

Language Skill Development

Recognizing Phrases – A Group of Words that Express a Concept within a Sentence

Vocabulary Building Tools

Labeling, Part-to-Whole, Associations – World Egg Day

Vocabulary Building Tools Leveled Stories: Ostriches – Not Your Typical Bird

Knowledge into Practice

Summaries of Research for Improved Advocacy, Planning, Teaching

Trends Impacting One Public School Program for DHH Students

Strategies for Improved Interactions

Social Skills Development & Pragmatic Language

Forming Friendships – A Voluntary and Reciprocal Relationship Between Individuals

Listening Skill Development

Listening for Question Type

Self-Advocacy Skill Development

Teen Talk from the Trenches – Dealing with a Difficult Teacher

Self-Advocacy – Describing Your Hearing Loss and Your Accommodations in a Variety of Settings

Remember to Access the Online Materials Library
Kool Kidz Vidz and the Member Discussion Forum!

All Teacher Tools materials are copyrighted with prohibition for distributing to non-members.

Teacher Tools magazine issues are posted by the 25th of each month, August through April.

Membership year to access Teacher Tools materials is from August 1 to June 30.

All e-magazine issues and content are fully downloadable for use by members any time throughout the membership year. Use the print function in the e-magazine to select the information you would like to download to your own media device for use with your students.