

Table of Contents

Straight from the Zebra’s Mouth

Unique Aspects of Students with Hearing Loss

Data Opens Doors – Working Memory Assessment

Tech Talk

Technology Considerations to Improve Access, Involvement, Outcomes

Choosing Hearing Technologies

Language Instruction Strategies

Materials to Use for Preschool, Elementary, and Secondary Students

Language Skill Development

Fact and Opinion

Vocabulary Building – Words, Words, Words

Labeling, Part-to-Whole, Associations – November 20th: Absurdity Day

Vocabulary Building Tools Leveled Stories – A Pig Goes to Vote

Knowledge into Practice

Summaries of Research for Improved Advocacy, Planning, Teaching

The Positives - for a Change: Appraisals of Parenting a Child with Hearing Loss

Listening Instruction Strategies

Practicing Auditory Objectives - Form and Use Plural Nouns

Strategies for Improved Interactions

Social Skills & Pragmatic Language Strategies

The Importance of Saying “Thank You”

Steps to Self-Advocacy Success

Goal Three: Language Processing Skills - Prosody

The Sky’s the Limit – Can You Hear Me - Wow

Transition Strategies

Self-Advocacy – The Voting Process

Remember to access the online Materials Library, Kool Kidz Vidz and the Member Discussion Forum!

All Teacher Tools materials are copyrighted with prohibition for distributing to non-members. Teacher Tools magazine issues are posted by the 25th of each month, August through April. Membership year to access Teacher Tools materials is from August 1 to June 30. All e-magazine issues and content are fully downloadable for use by members any time throughout the membership year. Use the print function in the e-magazine to select the information you would like to download to your own media device for use with your students.